- 5. Determination whether less costly methods or less intrusive methods exist for achieving the purpose of the proposed rulemaking:
The Board bears the cost of compliance. Rules for licensure are required.
- 6. Alternative methods considered by the agency:
 - Description of any alternative methods that were seriously considered by the agency:
The Board determined that the chapter is required but that the language could be significantly reduced.
 - Reasons why alternative methods were rejected in favor of the proposed rulemaking:
The public benefits from having information about licensure requirements.

Small Business Impact

If the rulemaking will have a substantial impact on small business, include a discussion of whether it would be feasible and practicable to do any of the following to reduce the impact of the rulemaking on small business:

- Establish less stringent compliance or reporting requirements in the rulemaking for small business.
- Establish less stringent schedules or deadlines in the rulemaking for compliance or reporting requirements for small business.
- Consolidate or simplify the rulemaking's compliance or reporting requirements for small business.
- Establish performance standards to replace design or operational standards in the rulemaking for small business.
- Exempt small business from any or all requirements of the rulemaking.

If legal and feasible, how does the rulemaking use a method discussed above to reduce the substantial impact on small business?

There is no impact on small business.

Text of Proposed Rulemaking

ITEM 1. Rescind 282—Chapter 23 and adopt the following new chapter in lieu thereof:

CHAPTER 23
BEHIND-THE-WHEEL DRIVING INSTRUCTOR AUTHORIZATION

282—23.1(256,321) Requirements.

23.1(1) Applicants for the behind-the-wheel driving instructor authorization will meet the requirements set forth by the department of transportation pursuant to rule 761—634.6(321).

23.1(2) To be eligible to provide classroom instruction, holders of the behind-the-wheel driving instructor authorization will additionally hold a valid or expired initial, standard, exchange, or master educator license with a teaching endorsement for 5-12 driver and safety education.

282—23.2(256,321) Validity. The behind-the-wheel driving instructor authorization is valid for one year from the date of issuance. The behind-the-wheel driving instructor authorization is valid only if the holder continues to be qualified under subrule 23.1(1).

282—23.3(256,321) Approval of courses. Each institution of higher education, private college or university, community college, or area education agency wishing to offer the behind-the-wheel driving instructor authorization will submit course descriptions to the department of transportation for approval. After initial approval, any changes by agencies or institutions in course offerings will be filed with the department of transportation.

These rules are intended to implement Iowa Code chapters 256 and 321.
